

As an amateur radio operator I believe that Broadband Over Power Line should not be allowed. This will cause interference to the amateur radio HF bands. These bands are used, along with others, for communications during time of need. They were in use during 9/11 as well as during Oaklahoma City and numerous times for situations overseas. Allowing BPL to happen will cause these bands to be useless.

Respectfully,

Richard Herzer/KG2HG